

Activities

Involvement in the many sports and activities at SPFHS requires some risk and luck over your high school career. As a Senior looking back over those years, will you have any regrets? As an athlete, was the experience of competition worth the aches and pains, or the late homework sessions? Did you grow as a person, and as a performer on the auditorium stage? Did you have fun? Would you have missed some very important relationships, otherwise? Or, were you a number rather than a person? That, too, was your choice. Life is a gamble. Did you take a chance? . . .
