

Over the past year each of us has taken many chances; we have gained things and we have lost things. There will be many more risks that we will have to take in the future.

As we review the year, we find that the chances we took may appear to be minimal, but they affected our lives greatly. When we came back to SPFHS after an all-too-short, but relaxing, summer, we took a big step — becoming Seniors.