than many of the great Raider teams of previous years. Potentially life-long relationships were still being formed among the Seniors, and with members of the Underclasses. The Marching Band still excelled. Theatre programs continued to be sharp and polished. Many of our graduates-to-be could count upon being accepted by the college or university of their choice. Something was happening. It had to be happening! For before anyone realized it, they were gone.

BUSINESS AS USUAL. It was business as usual for Seniors as they planned for the future [see Photo above], while living for today [see Photos below].
