

RULES . . .

IT'S OFTEN THE RULES AT SPFHS WHICH MAKE THE SCHOOL SEEM SO CONFINING.

EVERY STUDENT HAS PROBABLY BEEN STOPPED IN THE HALL AT LEAST ONCE BY A TEACHER, AND HAS BEEN ASKED TO PRODUCE THAT LITTLE MAGIC PIECE OF YELLOW PAPER KNOWN AS "THE PASS".

MANY A STUDENT HAS BEEN SENT HOME FROM PLAY REHEARSAL OR SPORTS PRACTICE, PREMATURELY, BECAUSE HE OR SHE CHOSE TO ATTEND AFTER HAVING BEEN ABSENT FROM SCHOOL.

SOME OF THE RULES ARE BENEFICIAL, PERHAPS EVEN REASONABLE.

HOWEVER, MANY ARE BROKEN DAILY WITH LITTLE RESISTANCE FROM "THE AUTHORITIES".

SHORTS ARE WORN TO SCHOOL.

BUBBLES ARE BLOWN, AND CANDY IS SOLD, IN CLASS.

AND ONE CAN SELDOM TURN A DARK OR DESERTED CORNER WITHOUT SEEING WHAT IS COMMONLY KNOWN AS "A PUBLIC DISPLAY OF AFFECTION".
