

ALARMS.

THE LIFE OF THE SPFHS STUDENT SEEMS REGIMENT-ED BY ALARMS. THE ALARM CLOCK RINGS AT 6 A.M.; YOU IGNORE IT, OR HIT THE "SNOOZE" BUTTON ONCE (OR TWICE) IN SEARCH OF A FEW MORE PRECIOUS MINUTES OF PEACE. EVENTUALLY YOU GET UP AND, HOPEFULLY, GET TO BAND PRACTICE BY 7:00, TO YOUR FBLA MEETING BY 7:45 (OR FACE AN "AWESOME" PUNISHMENT!), AND IN YOUR HOMEROOM SEAT IN TIME FOR THE 8:14 LATE BELL. YOU PASS TO CLASS WITH A BELL. YOU EAT WITH A BELL. AND THERE ARE FIRE ALARMS — AT LEAST TWO EACH MONTH, DEPENDING UPON STUDENT INITIATIVE. HOW MANY TIMES HAS THE FIRE ALARM INTERRUPTED A TEST YOU WERE TAKING — AND NEEDED EVERY POSSIBLE SECOND TO COMPLETE? FOR SENIORS, ALARMS ARE EVERYWHERE! DEADLINES FOR SATS, FOR COLLEGE APPLICATIONS, FOR SENIOR WRITE-UPS, EVEN FOR FINDING A PROM DATE!
