

Students and Staff were saddened to learn in December of the sudden and tragic death of Jeanette Britton of the Foreign Language department.

At SPFHS, Mrs. Britton was an instructor and guide to her students, a leader and role-model to her peers, over a quarter century.

As an educator and as a friend, her example for us was not unlike that of an even more accomplished teacher, the Apostle Paul:

She fought the good fight;

She stayed her course;
She kept her faith.

Her example remains.
Her presence will be deeply missed.
