

Raider teamwork was the cement necessary for rebuilding the program after the 1988 season.

Chris Giordano (#78) will again be a force on the line in the 1990 season.

Youth will be served in the 1990 and '91 seasons. It remains to be seen, however, how the absence of a Middle School football program in 1989 will affect the program in the short and long-term future.