the Tradition . . .*

After 50 years, one might say we are old, but truly we are just beginning.

When the first CULMEN was published in 1942, SPFHS was located on Park Avenue. Today, that building is a Middle School.

There were 77 seniors in the class of 1942.

As our community grew, so also did our High School population. A new High School was built on Happel's Farm in 1958.

The student population continued to grow. The "new" High School was enlarged in 1969. The senior class of 1991 will be the smallest in 30 years. Yet, after 50 editions of CULMEN, the pages are essentially the same. There are new faces, but the same memories of friends and good times remain.

The Class of 1991 encounters the same dilemmas as the class of 1942, and those in between: Who to date, which party to attend, or whether it's possible to finish homework in homeroom.
