

Lockers are found in nearly every high school across the United States. Though they vary in color, size and shape, they all serve the same basic purpose. Similar in design, the open locker doors present many aspects of students' lives. Some lockers have books, graffiti, posters, artwork, mirrors, old lunches, and rotten apples. Each locker is as different as its owner.

At a first glance this school may appear to be any other high school. But deep inside the halls is a character and personality like no other. Our student body is made up of 1123 students. Each student has individual ideas and style. Many types of people walk our hallways, and all feel as if they belong.

Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School is a stimulating place. Academically, socially, and athletically, we have the mettle to compete with the best. Take a close look around because IT'S WHAT'S INSIDE THAT COUNTS!
