

Model U.N.

Model U.N. gives students an opportunity to exhibit leadership skills, take voice opinions, take part in international issues, and understand U.N. Diplomacy.

In early December, Model U.N. represented 3 countries: Japan, Denmark and Thailand, in a three-day conference in Hershey, PA. The General Assembly Ambassadors were Heather Thompson representing Thailand, Karen Wells representing Japan, and Wayne Zitsch representing Denmark. Other members of Model U.N. include Jeff Biedel, Jason Biegelson, Chris Coronella, Muneesha Gayal, Bob Kelley, Majorie Lathrop, Todd Markowitz, Robin Shea, Jo Thompson, Ray Tsao. Mrs. Betty Lou Canright advises this organization.

The General Assembly Ambassadors From Left to Right: Karen Wells, representing Japan, Wayne Zitsch, representing Denmark and Heather Thompson representing Thailand.

Members of Model U.N. before their trip to Hershey, PA Back Row: Mrs. Canright, Advisor, Ray Tsao, Robin Shea, Todd Markowitz, Bob Kelley, Wayne Zitsch, Chris Coronella, Jeff Biedell, Jason Biegelson. Front Row: Muneesha Gayal, Joy Thompson, Heather Thompson, and Karen Wells.