

OVER THE NET

Optimistic yet cautious, Coach Blackman projects, "It will be tough to match last year's record, especially since we are losing four seniors but we can get the job done." Last year's 21-3 record will be hard to beat, yet returning starters Pete Beckus, Amit Doghra, G. P. Karsenty and Jim Dougherty believe they can do it. Major opponents such as Westfield, Oratory, Plainfield and Pingry will be wise to realize that the 1993 Boy's Tennis team will be a major title contender.
