

This Year's

The air filled with cheers as William Jefferson Clinton was sworn into office as the 42nd president of the United States (right). Clinton shows off his talent on the saxophone during the opening of the "Arsenio Hall Show." Arsenio said, "It's good to see a Democrat blowing something other than the election."

The music world was stunned by the loss of Dizzy Gillespie on 1/6/93. Gillespie was a talented trumpet player who delighted audiences with his unique style of playing.

The dance world mourned the loss of Rudolf Nureyev. The famous dancer died of AIDS related complications on 1/6/93.

The Toronto Blue Jays took baseball's championship outside the United States for the first time ever, beating the Atlanta Braves 4-3 in 11 innings in game 6. "We stopped the chop!" shouted revelers referring to the Atlanta fan's ritual.

