

Top Stories

For centuries, Yugoslavia has been a battleground between the Austro-Hungarian and Ottoman empires, and the ethnic diversity in the region has been a major source of the strife. In 1992, after a terrible war leaving thousands dead, the territory of Yugoslavia has broken up.

grim new vision of the world AIDS epidemic predicts that up to 120 million people will be infected by the disease by the end of this decade with the most disastrous explosion of it in Asia. People formed the AIDS quilt, which toured 35 states, to mark losses of AIDS victims in the United States.

The nation's efforts concerning recyclable trash have greatly increased in the past year and were reinforced by companies such as Coca-Cola and McDonald's who urged other businesses to do the same.

12 year-old William Figueroa, a.k.a. the "potato kid," basking in his new found celebrity after having spelled "potato" correctly when Dan Quayle did not.

