

The 1999-2000 tennis team had an extremely successful season. The team's record was 16-4, losing only to teams ranked in the top twenty in the state. The tennis team finished sixth in the county tournament with Carolyn Pilkington a four-time finalist. In the state tournament Millburn eliminated the team in the sectional finals.

Jennifer Harrison smiles triumphantly as she sets up her backhand shot.

Anisha Bhasin is light on her feet as she calculates the force needed to hit the ball over the net.

Elizabeth Pilkington reaches to new heights as she skillfully attacks the ball with her backhand shot.

