

A STRIKING DISTANCE

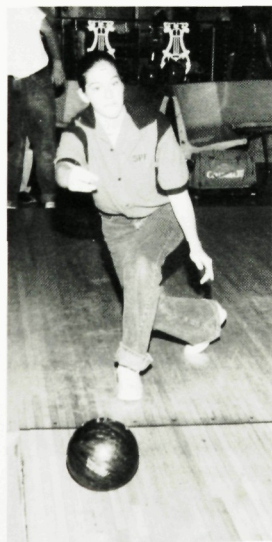

Bowling at Hy-Way Lanes, the varsity bowling team had a building season this year. Though half of the team was freshmen, the experienced seniors were able to guide the team to a fun season. Co-Captains Justin Ross and Alex Wasserman held the team together through its ups and downs. With many young, talented bowlers, the team looks to succeed in the future.

x Wasserman concentrates hard on achieving perfect form.

Above Left: Freshman Krystle Sanguiliano is a major asset to the team. Above Middle: Andrew Schwartz takes aim and fires on a 7-10 split. Above Right: Whenever Travis Kelley gets up to bowl, the crowd anticipates a strike.

ve Left: John Bezrutczyk displays good form as he hopes for a strike. ve Right: Even though she's only a freshman, Kristin Williams has enough spirit to keep the team cheerful.

Top Row: Andrew Schwartz, John Bezrutczyk, Travis Kelley, Alex Wasserman Bottom Row: Krystle Sanguiliano, Justin Ross, Kristin Williams

