

IN A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN

Above: Katie Church gets ready to make the long throw from third to first base just fast enough to beat the runner.

Lower right: Jillian Saradaki throws the ball to first base just in time to get the runner out. Plays like these enabled the Lady Raiders, led by Coach Frank Butz, to achieve success.

Above: Jen Doyle successfully takes a crack at the first pitch thrown to her in the first inning of the game.

Opposite page below: Megan Miller gets ready to hit the fast pitch that is right in her strike zone.

