

SLC: FOLLOW

SLC is the student leadership conference that is held annually in the beginning of the year for one weekend. At this conference students learn leadership skills and learn to work in groups. Participants also break up into smaller groups and choose a major project to work on throughout the course of the year. Right: Pictured here is SLC's "Club OW" after they ascended the twelve-foot wall with advisor Mrs. Aguero. They surprised themselves with the strength and teamwork they exhibited.

Delsa Slough gives big sister Lorri Slough a piggy back ride to their next SLC activity on the agenda.

SLC members are pictured here engaging in "trust activities" which help them learn the importance of relying on others in a team.