

Scotch Plains-Fanwood DECA is one of the most active clubs in the high school and community. They start the year off with a canister drive throughout town to raise money for some of the events throughout the year. Towards Halloween responsible students organized a party and bought over sixty costumes for homeless children through the Interfaith Council. Following the Halloween party more students helped to organize the Thanksgiving Day dinner and food baskets to distribute to the needy.

D
E

