

BE ALL YOU CAN BE

Standing at attention, David Kelly dreams about his future in the armed forces.

Relaxation at last! Richard Bartlett, Anna Roshansky, and Richard Villane spend their free time lounging on the plush sofa found in the ROTC room.

Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) is a program designed to build better citizens for America. By teaching the values of leadership, respect, self-discipline, and patriotism, they are able to send cadets into the world with a better understanding of how to make a positive difference.

On off-duty hours, ROTC members always have the right accessories as is shown by Nickcoy Findlater.

Displaying his numerous medals and badges, Jim Drewes waits for orders.
