

ME & MY GIRL

Laine Bonstein had a leading role as a freshman in "Me and My Girl." Here she is finishing her solo, "Men at Harefore."

Jim L'Heureux and Ian Bonner dazzle the crowd with their harmony in "Love Makes the World Go 'Round."

After last year's hit production of "Me and My Girl," the cast moves on to everybody's favorite play "Grease." Taking on the lead roles this year are Courtney McDonald as "Sandy" and Ian Bonner as "Danny." The supporting roles are held by Meryl Bezrutczyk as "Rizzo" and Jim L'Heureux as "Kenickie." The cast has been working hard since December and has endured long hours of learning dances, reciting lines, and practicing songs. The cast consists of 60 students from all grades. Ad sales were the group's biggest fundraiser, and they helped buy costumes, props, and materials for sets. The cast would like to thank all those who attended the play and all parents for their support.

The cast ends their first act with the zany hit "Doing the Lambeth Walk."

Laine Bonstein and Jim L'Heureux, along with the chorus, finish off the play.

