

SPANISH CLUB - ¿ HABLA ESPAÑOL?

Spanish Club congregates to eat the traditional nachos and cheese.

The 1999-2000 school year was "exelente" for the Spanish Club and National Honor Society. Spanish Club officers Sophia Salman, Justin Ross, Jessica Biegelson, Monique Davis, and Erica Abreu helped lead the club in many activities. The club held their annual coat drive, supported Deca's Adopt a Family, held several fundraisers in order to give its yearly scholarships to deserving seniors, and sponsored the International Volleyball Tournament. The Spanish Club and National Honor Society hopes to continue its traditions and aims for an equally successful future.

Dana Berkowitz, Matt Goldenberg, and Steve Berkowitz listen attentively to the discussion of upcoming events.

James Kao, Alex Wasserman, and Tom Callahan enjoy the club's festivities.

GERMAN CLUB - SPRECHEN SIE DEUTSCH?

German Club gathers together for a baking and bonding session.

German Club has held many activities this year. Advisors, Fra Ritchie and Frau Mennitt, along with club officers, Cara Bristol, Eva Flath, Dave Larken, Brian Raska, Jen Savage, and Beth Weiler, have led the club and fostered enthusiasm amongst its members. The German Club participated in the International Volleyball Tournament, sold Advent Calendars, worked at the local Recycling Center twice this year, had a gingerbread house contest, and attended German Immersion Day. Their commitment and involvement in the school community has fostered the learning of the German language and culture.

Two Daves a Jen and a gingerbread house.

