

Temporary Inconvenience or Permanent Improvement??

Above (Left): The lack of parking spaces has both the teachers and the students very upset and frustrated.

Above (Right): Construction workers inhabit the perimeter of the school grounds where they work to improve our school

Left: The view out the window of SPFHS is not as eyepleasing as it once was.

Above (Left): Mrs. Harmer's room has temporarily moved across the hall while the elevators are being built. This is just one of the few teachers who had to scarifice their room for the construction.
