

In Remembrance of Millions

9/11 Memorial

While Jason Villane holds the American flag, Daniel Heppt respectfully faces him.

The ROTC flag bearers are full of pride as they walk into the distance.

Abby Price commemorates the lives that were lost on 9/11 as her fellow SGA members Taylor Cole, Ricardo Arocha, Ray Dinizo, and Michael Hessemer look on.

Proud to be an American, Rupnath Chattopadhyay lets us hear his spirit by playing the tuba.

Mrs. Senff and Mrs. McDermott smile through a day of tears.

The Select Chorus reminds our country that "like an eagle we will soar above the clouds" of adversity because we are Americans.

The Marching Band serenades the afternoon crowds with songs of patriotism.

Alex Hofer, Angela Stanford, and Mrs. Brand stand in silence as they ponder what the memorial tree means to them.

Staff members Mrs. Herniter, Mrs. Sleeper, and Mrs. Smith share a moment of pride in the USA.
