

Dustin Jefferson

As hectic as your life may get,
In these ensuing years,
Take a pause to quietly reflect,
On life's blessings, joys and fears.

For life's an adventurous journey,
Filled with learning, laughter and love,
Hard work and play won't lead you astray,
If you follow the Light from above.

We're proud of you Dustin. Through the years, we've enjoyed your wit and exuberance, and admired the strength of your character. Don't shortchange yourself or the world- use your gifts well. And remember that you'll carry our love with you always.

Love,
Mom, Dad and Austin
