

Who Knew?

Lauren Belford

Did you know? Senior Lauren Belford started writing songs and poetry in the 10th grade. When she went to a Kenny Chesney Concert (country music), she was given an address to which she could send her music and lyrics. She worked for months perfecting her best song and sent it to Nashville, Tennessee about three months ago. Lauren's song is being reviewed and could possibly be sung by one of Country's top musical artists.

Anthony Appezzato

Did you know? Junior Anthony Appezzato snowboards at a competitive level. He has been snowboarding for four years and has been competing for three years. Even though he has not placed first yet, in his past three competitions he has placed in the top five; his last competition he placed third. This year, Anthony has taken his snowboarding to a new level. He just recieved a sponsorship with Out of Bounds skate shop, and he is working out possible contracts with Burton snowboards, and Volcom clothing. This year he will be participating in a number of competitions including a pro bracket competition: The US Open. He hopes he will be transferring for senior year to Mount Snow Academy, a snowboarding-based school.

Nellie Caballero

Did you know? The American Girl doll, Josefina, was modeled after Sophomore Nellie Caballero, and for two years, Nellie modeled for American Girl and promoted the doll. Josefina is a young Hispanic girl growing up with her family in Santa Fe, New Mexico in the 1840's. When American Girl doll Josefina was being created, Nellie's duties included everything from modeling to personal apperances to photo shoots.

Chris Ryskasen

Did you know? Junior Chris Ryskasen has lived in five different countries and used to speak Swedish. He has lived in England, Saudi Arabia, Sweden, Egypt, and the United States. The reason for all these moves is that Chris' dad is in the CIA. Chris still doesn't have his Green Card or Visa, so he can not leave the country and come back!
