

HALLOWEEN

Faires by day... but after that, who knows? Junior Kristin Zyla and Senior Katie Bantz "pose" together before "flying" to their classes.

Taking Halloween as an opportunity to show off his Raider Soccer pride, Junior Greg Leischner goes all out.

Who lives in a pineapple under the sea? Seniors Pedro Coyt and Andre Melendez! Well, at least we'll let them think that for the day.

S
C
O
O
L
S
C
O
O
L
S
C
O
O
L

It was hard to recognize most of Spiffy's students this October 31st. Dressing up as everything from monsters to angels, students celebrated Halloween in hopes of winning the contest sponsored by the Student Government Association. In each of the three lunch periods, SGA selected winners. The winners of each lunch then competed with each other until there was one winner in each of the categories: scariest, most original, and funniest. Adding a haunting atmosphere to the hallways, students enjoy changing identities for a day.

Left: One, two, three, DRAW! Seniors Kyle Baker and Erica Schwarz will take anyone on, YEE-HAW!

Below: These boys (Juniors Steve Mineo, Brendan Weber, and Andrew Jayson) show their tough side, or not so tough side, dressing up in outfits from a badboy hick to a crayon.

Left: Arrrrr! Senior pirates Nick Barattucci and Danny Metzger, along with Junior pirates Jessica Knierim, Carlene Bronikowski, and Shannon Hasset are nice enough to pose for a picture. Beware though; they're only out for your treasure!

Middle: Senior Chris Russo's two true sides come out on Halloween.

BOO!