“Temporary Design”

From head to toe, fashion plays an important role in the lives of many students. Whether it involves picking out a shirt to coordinate with chosen shoes, or finding the perfect accessory to compliment an outfit, students at Spiffy High are always on the brink of trend-setting fashion. Being this fashion forward may not be easy, but our students always pull it off with flair. Fall, winter, spring, and summer, students stay on top of the latest fashions and trends, proving that SPFHS students are truly fashion gurus.

Below: Students are always on the go, but that doesn't mean their phones can't be fashionable.

Above: Carrying books can be annoying, but Sophomores Stephanie Ricca and Julie Hyman don't mind because they do it in style.

Above: Jeans are always in style, but Seven's are proving to be the jean of choice.

Above: Whether it's to keep warm or to show off their style, Seniors Kerolos Bernaba and Daren Brown are almost always seen "rockin'" their scarves.
