

Senior Saif Alzoobae

Junior Julie Meurer

“I lost my house and I lost my cars, but I still got my family... and I still got my spirit.”
 Steve Scott of the Biloxi Fire Department

junior Lauren Messina

relief

Hurricanes Katrina and Rita shook the country to the core. The category 5 storms destroyed a sense of security for the masses, sending families from their homes to shelters. People lost jobs, friends, and lives; floods washed away familiar things. In response to these tragedies, the student body reacted with a collective desire to improve the

“Donations are welcome and appreciated”
 junior Lauren Messina difficult situations. Non-perishable food, school supplies, clothes, and hygienic items were collected, and $5,000 was raised through the Telethon. “I think we enacted every program we could to help the victims. I do believe that we had all the bases covered,” stated senior Samantha Savino.

bake to school night

SCN members, seniors Natalie Sanchez and Julie Madan offer their time to help at donation tables. As an active member of SCN, Madan participated by making the table presentable so that parents would contribute to help in the relief fund. “I feel it's our responsibility as a community to do our best to help others in need, and I'm glad to be a part of SCN,” stated Madan.