Lauren Noelle Benovengo

Whether scoring a run or making a shot, You've been the gleam in our eye since you were a tot.

You could never measure how much we love you,
And we know you can do anything you put your mind to.

So as you leave for college and say, "See you later," Remember, Lauren, you'll always be our favorite Raider!

Love Always,
Mom, Dad and Paul

Devang Patel

Congratulations Devang!

All our love, trust, and wishes for success go with you as you meet the future which awaits you. We are as proud of you today as we have been everyday of your life.

We Love You
